THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser.

Steadily, steadily, step by step, Up the venturous Builders go, Careful placing stone on stone-Thus the loftiest temples grow.

Patiently, patiently, day by day, The Artist toils at his task alway Touching it here, and tinting it there, Giving It ever, with infinite cure, A line more soft, or a hue more fair, Till little by little, the picture grows, And at last the cold dull canvas glows

With life and beauty, and forms of grace That evermore in the world have place. Thus with the Poet-hour after hour He listens to catch the fury chimes That ring in his soul; then, with magic power

He weaves his meledy into his rhymes; Slowly, carefully, word by word, Line by line, and thought by thought, He fashions the golden tissue of song-And thus are immortal anthems wrought

Every wise observer knows-

Every watchful gaser sees Nothing grand or beantiful grown, Save by gradual, slow degrees. Ye who toil with a purpose high, And family the proud result await, Murmur not, as the hours go by, That the season is loog, the harvest late Remember that brotherhood, strong and true, Builders and Artists and Bards sublime, Who lived in the Past, and worked like you Worked and waited a wearisome time.

Dark and cheerless and long their night, Yet they patiently toiled at the task begun, Till, lo ! thro' the clouds broke that morning light Which shines on the soul when Success is won?
